

SoBA STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

The SoBA Student Ambassador Program is a great opportunity for undergraduate students to represent UC Riverside's School of Business Administration Undergraduate Business Programs to internal and external constituents. The Student Ambassador will be the face of the program and assist the school as a host during official functions, make presentations, and act as a student liaison with the various communities that SoBA serves both on and off-campus.

Benefits:

- Interact and network with students, the SoBA dean, faculty, and community leaders
- Develop leadership, group dynamics, communication and public speaking skills
- Improve and enhance interpersonal skills
- Letter of recommendation for job searches or graduate schools
- Résumé builder
- Recognition at graduation with a Student Ambassador sash
- Priority registration for business courses

Qualifications:

- Must be a Pre-business, Business Preparation or Business Administration major
- Must have a 3.2 cumulative GPA
- Must have attended UCR for at least one quarter, or completed a minimum of 12 units
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Minimum three quarter commitment to the Student Ambassador Program
- Must submit a résumé and two letters of recommendation (one from faculty and the other from work or volunteer experience)
- Attend program meet and greet on:
 - Thursday, December 4th at 6:00pm for spring application
 - Thursday, March 5th at 6:00pm for fall application
